

Recap on Mill's "On Liberty"

"On Liberty" - Aimed at a mature and rational society.

Introduction

pp62-3:

"Tyranny of the majority"

(1) Political

(2) Social

p69:

"Over Himself..."

Actions:

-Self regarding

-Other regarding

pp69-70

"Utility...", & Rights
(see Ryan p180.)

Chapter Two

pp115-116

Arguments for Freedom and Thought and Discussion:

- 1 An opinion may be True.
 - 2 It may be partly True and contain Some Truth.
 - 3 Truth needs to be contested.
-
-

Chapter Three

p119 Limits to freedom of Action.

P123 Ape like Imitation.

p127 Limits imposed by Rights and Interests of others.

P128 Individuality produces well developed human beings.

P129 - P130 Genius.

Chapter Four

p141 Social Obligations

p142 Education should cultivate both Social and Individual awareness.

P146 Actions regarding others followed by discussion.

P148 Responsibilities towards family.

Chapter Five

p163 Restatement of maxims.

P164 Supports Free Trade.

P165 Example of poisons.

P167 Drunkenness

p170 Stimulants.

P175 Husbands and Wives.

P175-179 Education.

P180 Objections to government interference.
